Black Country Museum - Made In The Black Country	Black Country Living Museum, Tipton Road, Dudley, DY1 4SQ	0121 557 9643	Saturday 26 May - Sunday 3 June, 10am - 5pm Cars, anchors, locks, door knockers – Black Country folk had a worldwide reputation for making things! Come along and discover how their manufacturing prowess put the region on the map, and have a laugh along the way this half term. Explore 26 acres of shops, houses and industrial areas as you take on the 'Where in the World?' trail. From West Indies to New Zealand, you'll discover just how far the Black Country-made goods went. Those feeling up to the challenge will be able to follow the footsteps of the Black Country's legendary car manufacturers and make their very own 'peg car' too. As you explore the village, make sure to pop your head into Gregory's General Store and grab a postcard to post into the nearly 200 year old post-box – this iconic design was manufactured right in the heart of the Black Country! From faggots and peas to Groaty pudding the Black Country folk made some pretty hearty meals too, make sure to speak to the costumed demonstrators who'll be cooking up this traditional fayre in the houses. Explore newly restored areas of the Museum including the mighty Anchor Forge. Watch live demonstrations of this once mighty instrument, showing you how the Black Country produced some of the largest metalwork the world had known. Don't forget to head on over to the brand new Racecourse Colliery and find out what life was like above the mines in a brand new multi-sensory experience. Meet brand new characters, listen as the pit 'oss pulls the tub along the tramway and watch as coal is transported up from the dark depths of the mine. You'll see where the Black Country knack for making things all started – with a lump of coal!	0	99
